On September 4, 1962, thirty-one brilliant looking students trooped into Mr. Castle's room. During the year we lost Sarah Eulitt, but gained Donna Deal, Marvin Schimmoeller, John Stefanka, Kenny Karhoff, Mike Kuhlman, and Dan Harper.

Our second year in high school was supervised by Mr. Bosse. That year we had 40 students in our ranks, including our new classmates, Cheri Chamberlain, Brenda Dysert, James Kuhlman, Jim Martin, Mike Murphy, and Dale Schimmoeller.

When we started our Junior year, with Mr. Shank as our advisor, we started the busiest of our high school years. Our class numbered thirty-nine with our three new members, Sue Stockdale, Charlie Bennet, and Richard Noles present. Early in the fall we presented the play, "Hail, The Hunkering Hero." We were kept busy all winter with the sale of Christmas cards, and operating the concession stand at the football games. With lots of hard work and some clever imagination, we presented "THE LONG SHIPS" as our Junior-Senior Prom.

At last we were Seniors! Mr. Howard had the task of looking after our graduating class of thirty-nine. We raised money by selling peanut brittle and in the spring selling magazines, and presenting our play, "Meet Me in St. Louis." We left on our class trip May 22, directly after Baccalaureate exercises. We graduated on MAY 28, 1966!

We, the class of '66, wish to thank the teachers who guided us along the path of our high school days. We hope that they will recall, as we will, the many precious moments spent in the halls of Liberty-Benton.

From our hearts may we say ".....they will little note nor long remember what we say here, but they CANNOT forget what we have done here....."

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1966, will and bequeath the following properties; material and otherwise, to the fortunate people listed below:

ARTICLE I

To the Junior class, our scarred desks, our worn-out lockers, our autographed books, and the glorious feeling of being Seniors.

ARTICLE II

To the Sophomore class, our reserved seats in the library, our ability to dodge teachers and their remarks, and our abundance of talents.

ARTICLE III

To the Freshman class, our great marksmanship in shooting paper wads, and all our gum wrappers.

ARTICLE IV

To the Faculty, our good nature, ambition, and never ending conceit-may you use them wisely!

ARTICLE V

I, Dennis Barber, will my ability in a wreck to demolish the other car and come out with a broken tail light to Joe Adams. Swerve quick!

I, Pat Beck, will my ability to style my hair anyway I want it, to anyone with easy-to-manage hair.

I, Sharon Beck, will my ability to be good natured to anyone who can get along with it.

I, Verla Bracy, will my ability to go to a basketball tournament game and push Lois Wilson off the end of the bench to Mertie Magee and Wanda Gilbert. Have fun, Wanda.

I, Jack Brown, will my pull on the Varsity Basketball Team to Terry Martin.

I, Cheri Chamberlain, will my stretch pants to Mrs. Rucker with great challenge. (Good luck in the future!)

I, Pat Cornely, will my baton to Mrs. Rucker. Throw it and save your voice.

I, Linda Cramer, will my ability to get along with Mr. Howard in the office to anyone who is brave enough to try. Good Luck.

I, Carol Diller, will my ability to get out of typing in Mr. Shank's office to any uncoordinated student that needs it.

I, Brenda Dysert, will my ability to talk with permission in 9th period study hall and still get in trouble for it to Carol Hallowell. Can I twist your arm now, Mr. Wareham?

I, Nancy Flugga, will my ability to laugh at anything, even if it isn't funny to anyone who has a good sense of humor.

I, Dan Harper, will my good looks to Mr. Orwick to replace his plastic surgery--the poor guy!

I, Ken Karhoff, will my history knowledge to Mrs. Miller.

I, Jim Kuhlman, will my ability to keep out of trouble to Bob Pierce.

I, Mike Kuhlman, will my ability to tell the world history class to go to study hall on April 1st to my little sister, Patti. (Look innocent, kid!)

I, Jim Martin, will my height and weight to Steve Schoonover.

I, Paul McCartney, will my love for cinnimint gum to Mrs. Miller--may you chew happily ever after.

I, Vickie McCartney, will my position as Head Drummer to Dick Sands. Keep the cadence snappy, Dick.

I, Michael Murphy, will my 69 jersey and blackbook to Philip Bolen for his extra-curricular activities.

I, Richard Noles, will my love for a higher education to anyone who is planning to or contemplating a higher education. "Good Luck" to the class of '67.

I, Rosalie Parkins, will my ability to sleep in Mrs. Miller's class to anyone who can get away with it. Be sure to sit out of reach!

I, Russ Patterson, will my ability to walk flat-footed and look like I'm walking on my knees to Phil Helms.

I, Charles Powell, will my ability to get along with Mr. Wareham to anyone dumb enough to want it.

I, Linda Randolph, will the football and basketball regulation book to Sandi Waldman. (Read it carefully, Sandi!)

I, Alice Saul, will my position as Business Manager on the annual staff to Phil Bolen. I hear you have a good head for figures, Phil!

I, Dale Schimmoeller, will my ability to break my glasses to anybody blind enough to wear them.

I, Marv Schimmoeller, will my position as class treasurer for three years to anyone who would like to increase their bank account.

I, Dave Seitz, will my long hair to Mr. Orwick.

I, Ed Shulaw, will my ability to sleep in problems class to Denny Miles.

I, Carl Smith, will my driving ability to Vickie Beltz. Don't run into too many telephone poles or trees. It is hard on your car.

I, John Stefanka, will my mouth guard to Jim Secrist. Don't swallow it.

I, Sue Stockdale, will my sis, Candy, all the luck in the following years to come.

I, Sheila Stroub, will my ability to get under Mr. Wareham's skin in study hall to anyone who wants to give it a try.

I, Carol Taylor, will my shortness to any girl who likes to date guys both short and tall.

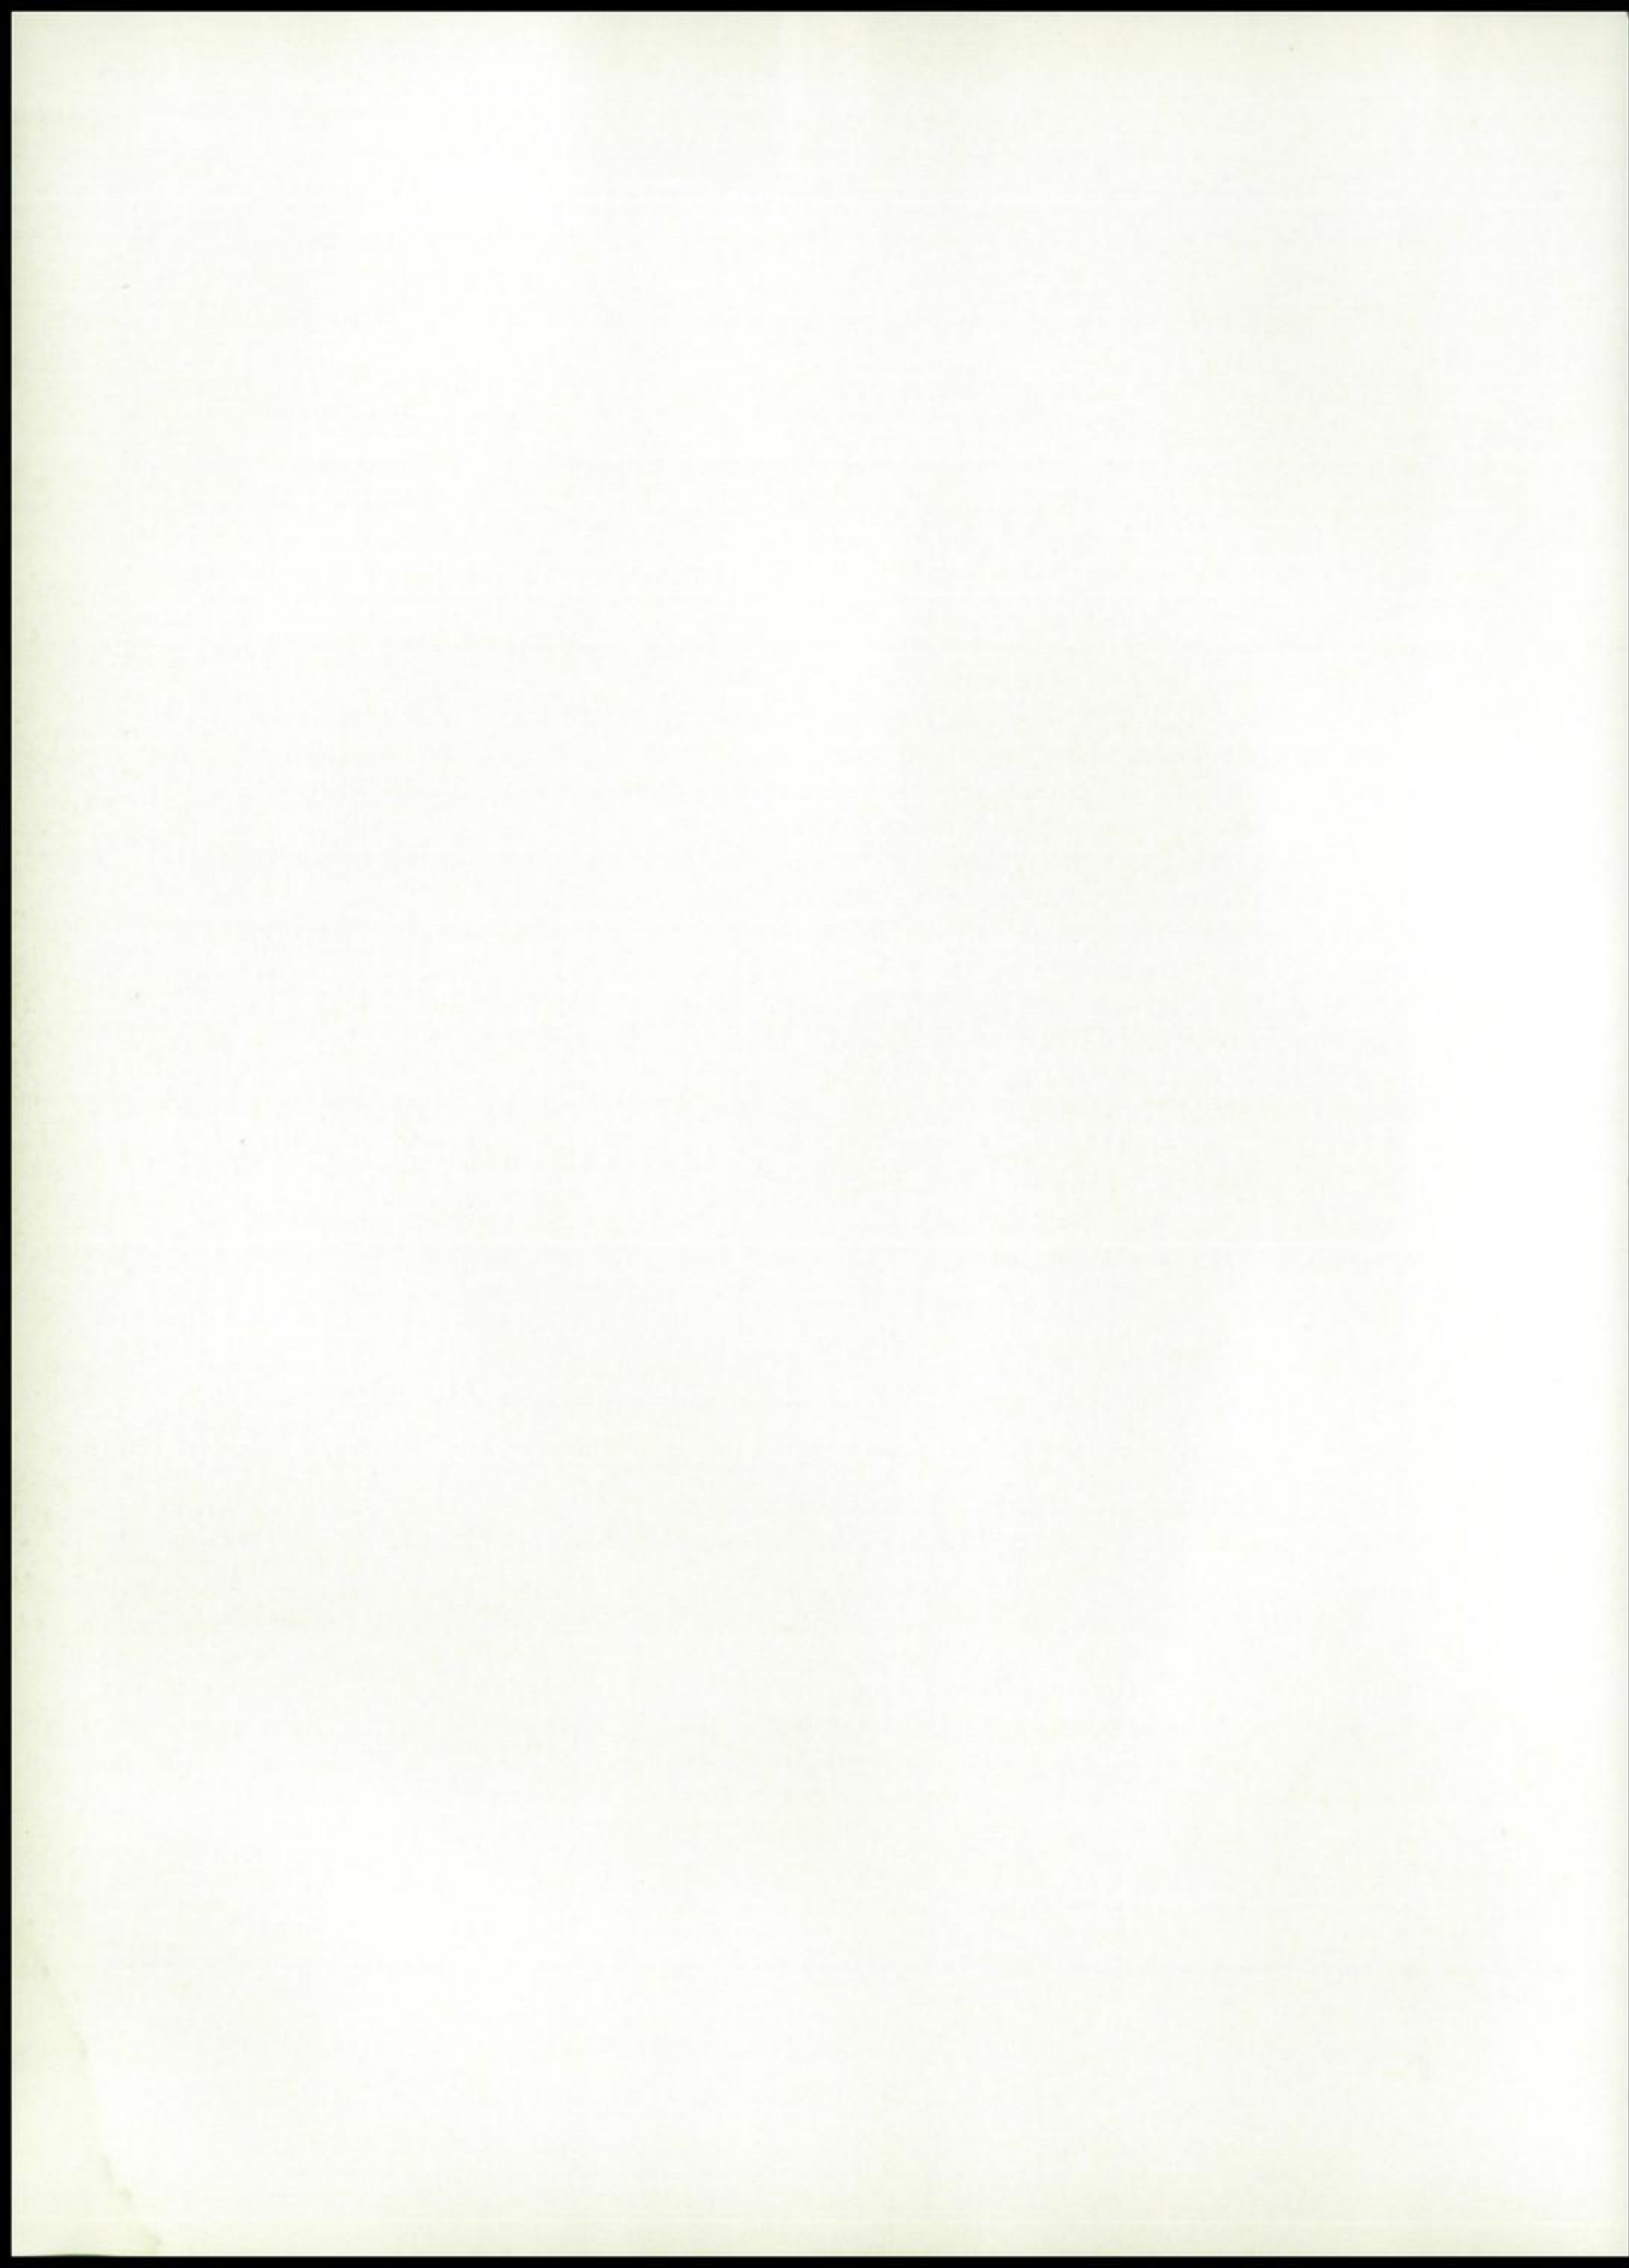

I, Joanne Walborn, will my ability to tickle Mrs. Miller and still pass problems to any Junior who likes to study hard.

I, Joyce Waldman, will my "beak" to Colette Bibler. Watch it. Colette, it grows on you!

I, Karen Wells, will my ability to skip school every other morning to Barb Rode. Don't get caught!

I, Junior Wiler, will my ability to drive my Volkswagon in any kind of weather to anyone who wants it. Watch out for those air pockets.

I, Lois Wilson, will my typing pin to Gary Harpst. Wear it on all special occasions, Gary.

We were very proud of our 1965-66 Basketball Team. Coached by Mr. Cherry, they finished second in a very tough league. Also, two seniors, Mike Murphy and Jim Martin, were nominated for the first string All-Conference Team. We would like to wish Mr. Cherry and next year's Team much success.
